7. Rights and responsibilities of the Organizer

The Organizer is entitled to exclude the Participant from the Game in any case, if it is proven that the Participant is violating the Rules in their participation, or they attempt to do so. The Organizer may suspend or cancel the Game, if any kind of abuses or significant infringements or their suspect occur. The Organizer is not responsible for and excludes any compensation or reimbursement arising from the possible errors, shortcomings, malfunctions of the Game, or delays during the period of the Game and excludes the responsibility for the related costs, damages, losses including the responsibility of damages at the Participant, should it be caused intentionally or by obvious negligence. The Organizer is not responsible for the claims of the Participant or their legal representative if any of them may provide incorrect data (e.g. entering the wrong email address).

The Participants and their legal representatives accept the condition that they will fully compensate the Organizer for any damage caused to the Organizer by any violation of the Rules while participating in the Game.

8. Data management and data protection

Students (Scoolers) and their legal representatives provide their data at the registration to a Logiscool course voluntarily to the Organizer and agree the data management of their personal data by the Organizer. Therefore, the Organizer is entitled to manage Students (Scoolers)' data through their course registrations.

- The Organizer as data manager and data processor manages the data of the Participant and their legal representative, provided at the registration to Logiscool courses and during their length and at the current Game (name, place and time of birth, residential address, email address, mobile phone number). The Organizer deletes their data from the database after that.
- The name of the winner will be published in a post exclusively in connection with the Game, Scooler Mission.

The Organizer guarantees that data management is carried out in compliance with the applicable legal provisions. The Organizer enables the opportunity to the Participant and their legal representative any time for requesting information about the management of their personal data. Additionally, the Participant and their legal representative have the right to object to the processing of their personal data. The Participant may go to court, if they do not agree with the decision of the Organizer, based on their objection.

The data manager and data processor of the provided personal data: Logiscool Kft. Contact: datamanagement@logiscool.com . The data management statement of Logiscool Kft. is available here: <https://www.logiscool.com/en/docs/privacy-policy>

If the Participant requests the deletion of their personal data during the period of the Game, they acknowledge that they will lose all rights and permissions in the Game and it will exclude them from the Game.

The Organizer reserves the right to make changes.
